Shri Bharat Hari Singhanian, Hon'ble Chancellor of the University graced the occasion with his presence. Padma Bhushan, Dr. Mrityunjay ji Athreya, widely regarded as one of the founders and pioneers of Indian Management education was invited as the Chief Guest on this occasion. It was a milestone in the journey of the University which has grown from its humble beginnings to its eminent stature today.

Led by the university administration comprising Dr. R.L. Raina, the honorable Vice Chancellor, Dr. Manoj Kumar Bhatia, Associate Dean- Institute of Management and Dr Anupam Kumar Singh, Director, Institute of the Engineering and Technology, the programme was attended by the students, staff and faculty members of the University. The Founder's Day Celebrations started with Saraswati Vandana and garlanding the bust of the Founder. Following this, Shri Bharat Hari Singhanian, Hon'ble Chancellor welcomed Dr. Mrityunjay Athreya, the Chief Guest with a bouquet.

In his welcome address, Dr. R.L. Raina, the honorable Vice Chancellor of the University expressed his delight in being a part of Late Lala Lakshmipat Singhanian's vision. He shared a few glimpses of JKLU's achievements during the past few years in various areas of mandate. Further he said, 'we will continue our efforts to put the University on the path to excellence with an aim of becoming the leading university in India and among the best in the world by inculcating among young students the cardinal virtues of humanism, tolerance, reason, and breadth of vision'.

In his inspirational speech, Honorable Chancellor, Shri Bharat Hari Singhanian, while sharing the vision of the founder of the university said, 'we practice a 'mentoring' based education system with intellectual, moral and spiritual culture of its own, rooted in Indian ethos and in tune with the global vision of the times'. He further said that we inculcate learning through understanding, innovative thinking and positive attitude formation.

In his presidential address, Dr. Athreya called upon the assembled Vice Chancellors, faculty, current students and alumni to be aware of the big gap in technology and management between India and China and work ceaselessly to reduce the gap. Asked about the current demonetization effort in the country Dr. Athreya said that even removal or reduction of past accumulated huge black money is itself a worthy goal. The implementation could have been planned better. But the vast majority of people seem to accept the temporary stress for a good objective. More steps are needed by Government to prevent further generation of black Money.

Earlier, during the day, Dr. Athreya also addressed all the faculty members of JK Lakshmipat University on "High Performance Culture in Academics". He dealt with the measures of excellence of a University and the activities to be taken by each faculty members, dean of every faculty and the top leadership of the University in order to create and sustain such a culture of excellence. Speaking as the Chief Guest Dr. Mrityunjay ji Athreya appreciated the vision on which JK Lakshmipat University has been founded besides lauding the effort of the University in having carved a niche for itself in a short span of time. Dr. Athreya also delivered a lecture 'High Performance Culture in Academics' and had a wonderful interactive session with faculty member of the university. Finally, gathering was entertained by the cultural performance put up by students of the university. The Master of the Ceremony was Dr. Punam Mishra, Faculty, Institute of Management, JK Lakshmipat University, Jaipur.

JKLUFC outing

"Outings are a fun break — people from different functional areas get to know each other better in a casual setting," says Bartels. On a similar note, JKLU fraternity club hosts outing every year so everyone can understand one another and enjoy communicating with one another on a personal and professional level. This year the members of Fraternity club went to World Trade Park, the biggest shopping mall in the Royal Pink City, Jaipur which is known for its modern feel amidst this ancient city. The outing got overwhelming response as one hundred and twenty-three JKLUFC members and their families participated in this group outing. The outing was scheduled on 19 February 2017 at 9. a.m. JKLUFC arranged buses from campus to the venue and vice versa. All members enjoyed the movie show of Jolly LLB 2 at Cinepolis, World Trade Park in the morning. One of the best experiences of the outing was shopping in the leading shopping mall as shopping is unavoidable to everyone in this modern world. Thereafter, all members moved on to The Bar B-Q, Crystal Court, Malviya Nagar for lunch. It was indeed a unique and memorable culinary experience as members have enjoyed the food and ambiance over there. Buffet food has lot of varieties in both veg and non-veg. All the JKLUFC members immensely enjoyed the trip and got an opportunity to build relationships with community members. Finally, around 3.00 p.m. buses were started for JKLU campus. Positive features that could be highlighted are the social aspects, activities for children and being outside, showing that the aims of the outing successfully matched the preferences of the community.
