A Musical Evening “Open Air 1.0”

Someone has truly said that where words fail, Music speaks. On the evening of 9th October, 2017, our university experienced this thing to the core. The Open Air 1.0 was the very first musical evening this university has experienced. The Open Air 1.0 was established with only one motto i.e., to remove the stage fear among the performers and to give the audience a quality time in the university. To felicitate this event, our special guests were Honorable Vice Chancellor Prof. R.L. Raina and the very talented singer and composer Mr. Abhishekh Mishra.

There was total 3 events namely Surkshetra (Solo Singing), Cross Lyrics (Antakshari) & Beat Battle in the Open Air 1.0 followed by the Band performance of ‘PANKH’. The surkshetra experienced active participation from students of the university as well as outside the university. The audience experienced the blissful music from every genre, be it classical or western. The honest reviews from our guest were most helpful for nurturing future talents. The audience were also never relaxed, and applauds were full every time. Aditya Tiwari nailed his performance, matched the right tone and bagged the first prize. Our guest Mr. Mishra was extremely delighted by the level of talent in our university and gave an equally amazing performance which made the audience dance to his tunes.

A report on “Navratri and Dusshera celebration”

“Garba is a dance form originated in Gujarat, performed during Navratri – a 9-day festival of Goddess Durga. It is also known as Garbi, Garbha or Garbha Deep. In ‘Garbha Deep’, the word ‘Garbha’ is a Sanskrit term, which means womb and ‘Deep’ means little earthen lamps.
