

Title: Code of conduct for students at JKLU campus

Date: 17.07.2017

Venue: IM Amphitheatre

Participants: New students admitted in the session 2017-18 of B. Tech, BBA, B. Des and M. Tech.

Speaker: Dr. Anupam Singh, Director-IET, JKLU

JK Lakshmipat University schedule a session on “Code of Conduct for students at JKLU Campus” for the newly joined students of both the institutes. The session was a part of their invocation cum induction program which was conducted for three days. The session on adhering the code of conduct at the campus and pledging to follow the guidelines is important to build a learning environment at the premises of the university. With this aim in mind, JKLU conducted a session with the new students to make them aware about the practices and code of conducted that is expected from them when they are at the campus. This session was addressed by Dr. Anupam Singh, Director-IET, JK Lakshmipat University, Jaipur.

