NOTICE

No. JKL/REG./052
July 20, 2015

As per the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and UGC Regulation on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions – 2009. Under the provisions of the said Regulation, ragging has inter-alia been defined as any conduct by any student / students whether by words spoken or written or an act which has an effect of teasing treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student or indulging in rowdy or indisciplinary activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or creates fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student or forcing a student to do an act which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or torment or embarrassment so as to affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or any other student, showing of power, authority or superiority by a student to any fresher or any other student. Collective gathering of students with any form of excuse and interviewing the freshers will also be treated as an act of ragging. Where the persons committing or abetting the act of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment.

The above said UGC Regulation also provides for punishment to the student found guilty of ragging. These punishments include suspension from attending classes, withholding / withdrawing scholarship, debarring from appearing in the test / examination, withholding results, suspension / debarring from hostel, cancellation of admission, rustication from the institution for certain period and expulsion from the institution. Besides these the student found guilty of ragging shall also be liable to face
