Report of Faculty Quality Improvement Programme on “Art and Science of Inspirational Teaching”

Feb 15-16, 2018

Faculty quality improvement is a continuous process aimed at further enriching the skill-sets and competencies of the faculty for enhanced performance in their teaching, research, training and consulting. In consonance with this approach, JKLU has launched a series of innovative Faculty quality improvement Programmes. Faculty quality improvement Programmes are facilitated by our Vice-Chancellor Prof R.L. Raina. Dr. Raina is a frequent consultant for a wide range of clients and develops training programmes on 'Effective Communication' for individuals as well as organizations in both public and private sector as well as in academics. His other training areas include 'Leadership Communication', 'Corporate Communication', 'Media Relations' and 'Scholarly Writing'.

16 faculties of JKLU participated in the Faculty quality improvement Programme focused on “Art and Science of Inspirational Teaching” on Jan 15-16, 2018 at MDC, JKLU. Current Faculty quality improvement Programme included two core elements:

Art of inspirational teaching

1. Preparing for class
2. Teaching with confidence
3. Engaging students
4. Handling difficult behaviours
5. Active listening and non-verbal communication
6. Engaging beyond the class
7. Leveraging Technology

Leadership for faculty

1. The art and science of effective communication
2. Interpersonal and group communication skills
3. Teaching styles
4. Personal communication style

The programme involved various overnight case studies and outdoor activities, which enhanced the peer to peer learning and took the participants back to the classroom experiences.

Event was completed with felicitation of the participant faculty members and a vote of thanks from Prof Raina. Programme received a very positive feedback.

Report of Workshop on “Teaching Online Experiences and Nuances”
July 31, 2020

A workshop on Teaching Online Experiences and Nuances and Learning with Technology (Shaping future ready students) was conducted for all faculty members of JKLU. The workshop was conducted on July 31, 2020 in online mode (Zoom platform).

The expert of the session were Ms. Shraddha Bharatiya, Lecturer, Centre for Communication and Critical Thinking and Dr. Milind Thomas Themalil, Associate Professor, IET. Ms. Shraddha shared her experience of planning and delivering courses in previous semester and her preparedness of utilizing Norms, Zoom breakouts, Energizers, MOOC and external experts to deliver courses in the upcoming semester. Dr. Milind Shared differences in generations in grasping the content, and bridging of gap between the tutor who belongs to one generation and learner belonging to another. He talked about a bundle of things to be taken care of during online delivery which includes from taking care of one's health along with the preparation of content, time management, avoiding procrastination, proper planning etc. which is an essential part of the session. Vice Chancellor, Dr. RL Raina, emphasized on setting and communicating rules of the game well in advance. The session was co-ordinated by Dr. Sonal Jain, Professor, IET.
